

Installation Instructions For:
Freeze Protection Sensor
Item # 35059

The FPS is designed to clip onto the existing suction line outside the evaporator coil. If the suction line falls below the temperature of 38 degrees then the circuit to the compressor coil will be broken. The fan will remain running through the cold coil until the call is satisfied or the temperature at the line reaches 48 degrees. The FPS differential will protect against short cycling.